

AAB Whistleblowing Policy 2019/20

Signed on behalf of trustees by GF Nouni on 9/8/2019

Whistleblowing policy

1. Wrongdoing at work: This procedure is designed to deal with disclosure of information by an employee which relates to some danger, bribery, corruption, fraud or other unlawful or unethical conduct in the workplace. Employment legislation governs the making of disclosures concerning workplace activities and is intended to protect employees who blow the whistle on bad practice from being subjected to any detriment or from being unfairly dismissed as a result. This procedure is available to all employees who discover something they feel that they should pass on in the interests of the public. All types of wrongdoing are included whether they are acts committed by fellow employees, faults in School procedures or oversights which should be rectified. The procedure should be used even in the event that the act or omission causing you concern has finished or has not yet started.

2. Grievances: This procedure should not however be used where you have a complaint relating to your personal circumstances in the workplace. The Grievance Procedure contained in this Employment Manual should be used in such cases.

3. Detriment: Provided that this procedure is used appropriately and correctly, you will not suffer any detriment as a result of reporting the wrongdoing. A failure to follow this procedure may however make the disclosure unreasonable and the protection given to you by this procedure may be lost.

Stage one

4. Procedure: You should disclose the suspected wrongdoing first to your Faculty Lead or Head/Principal. In the event that your Faculty Lead or Head / Principal is involved in the suspected wrongdoing, you shall be entitled to proceed directly to Stage Two of this procedure.

5. Response: You can expect a response detailing to whom the disclosure has been notified or any action taken within seven days of your Faculty Lead or Head / Principal becoming aware of the disclosure.

Stage two

6. Procedure: If no response is forthcoming after seven days or if your Faculty Lead or Head/Principal is involved in the suspected wrongdoing you shall be entitled to notify the Chair of Governors.

7. Response: You can expect a response detailing any action taken within seven days of the Chair of Governors becoming aware of the disclosure.

Stage three

8. Procedure: If no such response is forthcoming you should inform the Chair of Trustees of the disclosure.

Stage four

9. Outside body: If you do not receive a response within seven days you shall be entitled to notify a relevant and appropriate body outside the School which may include:

- a) the Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO)
- b) Children's Social Care
- c) the Health and Safety Executive
- d) the Environment Agency
- e) the Information Commissioner
- f) the Department for Education
- g) the Department for Business, Enterprise and Regulatory Reform
- h) the Police
- i) the Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills (Ofsted)

10. Bypassing the procedure: In extreme circumstances you will have the right to raise your concern directly with a relevant and appropriate outside body without first having followed the stages above. This may however cause damage to the School and its reputation as well as constitute a breach of your own duty of confidentiality towards the School and this action should only be taken in extreme circumstances and after careful thought.

11. Keeping Children Safe in Education: For the avoidance of doubt nothing within this policy is intended to prevent staff from complying with their statutory obligations in accordance with 'Keeping Children Safe in Education'. In particular if, at any point, there is a risk of immediate serious harm to a child a referral should be made to children's social care immediately.

12. Extreme circumstances: When considering whether "extreme circumstances" exist in accordance with clause 10 above, the School will consider whether you have a reasonable belief:

- a) that the School will subject you to detriment if you inform your Faculty Lead or Head/Principal in accordance with Stage one above or if you inform the Chair of Governors in accordance with Stage two or you inform the Chair of Governors in accordance with Stage three; or
- b) that a cover-up is being mounted by the School; or
- c) that a disclosure made previously to your Faculty Lead or Head/Principal or the Chair of Governors or the Chair of Trustees in accordance with the stages above has not prompted a satisfactory response.

13. The media: Even where extreme circumstances are thought to exist, you should under no circumstances approach a commercial body or the media with details of the suspected wrongdoing. If you approach any such body and / or where your concern is disclosed for
